ME!, NOT PARTY WAS WHAT VOTER LOOKED AT NOVEMBER 7TH

Lawrence Martin, Expert Analyst for U. P., Endeavors to Tell Just "How It Happened."

MANY TURNOVERS

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Dec. 1. (U. P.)—The alibi and the postmortem are the order of the day among the "lame ducks" who were "winged" in the Congressional elections.

"How did it ever happen to me?" they have begun asking themselves. The answers are interesting, and they point a moral to politicians who are trying to profit by the mistakes of 1922, so that they will not fail in 1924.

Examination of the causes underlying the defeat of some of the veterans who had long occupied places of prominence in the Senate emphasizes, first of all, the new independence of American voters.

Before the election it was apparent that the public was not following national issues. After the election it was clear that national issues were almost wholly neglected and that men stood or fell almost entirey upon their records and their political personalities.

In Ohio, Pomerene, a Democratic Senator of the highest standing and recognized ability was snowed under despite a Democratic state victory. Union labor did for Pomerene. He displayed great independence towards organized labor, and labor in turn got even when it came to voting for Senator. The "radical drys" also apparently voted against him.

In Nebraska, the drys beat Senator Hitchcock, another Democrat, against

TWO ACCUSE EACH OTHER OF MOST BRUTAL SLAYING

New York, N. Y., Dec. 1.—Abraham Becker the dead woman's husband and Reuben Norkin, a neighborhood garage keeper, are both locked up to day, each accusing the other of the murder of Mrs. Becker. Mrs. Becker had been missing for several months and her body was found in the garage today. Decker denied that the body found was that of his wife but later declared that it was and accused Norkin of slaying his wife because of an altercation of an auto repair bill. He said he did not tell of his suspicion about Norkin because he was afraid of Norkin. The crime was most cold blooded one, the body having been terribly mutilated and abused.

DISORDER IN CITY OF MEXICO BECAUSE OF WATER SUPPLY

Mexico City, Mexico, Dec. 1.—Between fifteen and thirty persons were killed and probably two hundred wounded in rioting last night and early today in this city when thousands attacked the city hall demanding the resignation of three city officials whose negligence the mob declared was responsible for the falling down of the city's water supply. A flood a week ago washed out some of the important feeders and the city has been without an adequate water supply since. The disorders made the night one of terror. When the mob surged to the doors of the city hall, fanatical leaders urging them to take the hall by storm, troops fired point blank into the mob causing large casualties and infuriating the mob which marched, fought and sang militant songs during the night.

VENIZELOS THINKS GREEK REPUBLIC IS PROBABLE

Athens, Greece, Dec. 1.—Former Premier Venizelos of Greece today forecasted a republic for Greece. The country, torn by dissention because of the execution of six former cabinet member accused of malfeasance in office, is in a chaotic state. The people are ripe for a republic," said the former premier today in addressing friends and press.

NEWS FROM THE HUNTING CAMPS

Who's who and what's what in the hunting camps is going to be a little slow this year if every day is like this one. Telephone lines are down to many of them and the hunters, owing to the weather, are not stirring around much. The Schrote camp is about the only one we have heard of that has a buck strung up on their front porch though no doubt there are others.

Pot hunters, however, have the usual luck. Lester Snyder, of Hyde City, drove out the Penfield Pike this morning and met a 150 pound buck with eight points near the State House. That was the end of the buck. Ed. Livergood of Woodland, also was a tourist hunter, he bringing down a fine seven pointer near where Snyder got his.

Preserve Keeper Dearick has no less than twenty automobiles parking on his lawn today and is thinking seriously of charging for parking space.

Early this morning a drove of five deer was sighted by John Boyce at the Crystal Springs Camp, among them a fine pronged buck, and since this was just what our friend John was looking for, he opened fire. A deer fell, but it happened to have been a doe which sprang into the line of sight just as the trigger was pulled. Mr. Boyce immediately hunted up a game official and squared himself with the law while the doe was sent to the hospital where patients will have a venison feed.

Misses Sue West and Elizabeth Hazeltine, of Barnesboro, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Ruth Evans.

Mrs. M. P. McDonald, of Fourth street, was called to DuBois today on account of the death of her brother, Patrick Eagan, who died at the DuBois hospital following a surgical operation.

A. L. PROPOSES THE NATION LIFT SELF FROM ILLITERACY

Americanism Committee Finds United States Eleventh In Census of Educated Peoples.

MANY ILLITERATE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23. (United Press.)Germany, whose autocratic ambitions the members of the American Legion helped to crush, now leads the world in literacy. This discovery was made by the Legions' Americanism Commission according to a statement made public today by Garland W. Powell, national director of the commission.

U. S. Is Eleventh.

The United States, which has boasted of its public schools, is found by the Legion to be eleventh on the literacy list of leading nations, the statement says.

Countries which have fewer illiterates than America, according to Powell, are, in relative order: Germany, Denmark, Switzerland, Holland, Finland, Norway, Sweden, Scotland, England and Wales and France.

Six In Hundred Cannot Read.

The estimate of the 1920 census showing more than five million persons or six per cent of the American population, is illiterate, is too low, Powell states, because a confession of illiteracy to a census taker was necessary to enroll the person in the list of those who can neither read nor write. This made it easy for the illiterate to conceal his ignorance, since there was no test of literacy. A person who could read and write only a few words was not classified as an

SENATE WILL GET SUBSIDY BILL FROM HOUSE ON MONDAY

Washington, Dec. 1.—The administration shipping bill, around which was waged the most bitter fight of the present congress, was passed Thursday by the House with 24 votes to spare. The final count was 208 to 184.

Sixty-nine Republicans broke away from their party organization and opposed the bill, while four Democrats supported it.

There never was much doubt about the results, but the margin by which it went through was much lower than estimates publicly given by most of the leaders. It was, however, just about what they figured on privately.

Monday the measure will go to the Senate committee, which plans to accept it as passed by the House, and then take its place on the floor.

HALL CASE

NOW JOINS FAMOUS CRIMES PIGEONHOLED AS 'UNSOLVED'

New Brunswick, N. J., Dec. 1.—The Hall-Mills murder case has gone into the dusty pigeon-hole of crime's unsolved mysteries.

The Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and his choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, murdered here nearly three months ago, have joined the hall of fame along with such famous figures as Dorothy Arnold, Joseph Elwell and William Desmond Taylor.

Failure of the grand jury to indict anybody in the double murder suggests to criminologists the question: Is the Hall-Mills case permanently pigeonholed?

Two other famous cases remain unsolved mysteries.

Dorothy Arnold disappeared Dec. 12, 1910. She was never seen again after coming out of a Fifth Avenue book store in New York that day.

Secret search went on until Jan. 25, 1911, when the case was reported to the police. Since then a fortune has been spent running down thousands of clues and it is still unknown whether she was murdered, kidnapped or committed suicide.

For two and a half years every effort has failed to solve the mystery of the murder of Joseph Bowne Elwell, bridge whist expert and turfman.

Elwell was found in his New York apartment in the early morning of June 11, 1920, dying of a bullet wound in the forehead. The suicide theory was discarded but his assassin has never been found.

Most recent of other famous unsolved mysteries, prior to the killing of the Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills last Sept. 14, was the murder of William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, in his Los Angeles home Feb. 2 of this year.

BEST BIG GAME SEASON IN ALL HISTORY-'GORDON'

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1. (U. P.)—The best big game hunting season in the history of the State was predicted by Secretary Seth Gordon of the Game Commission today.

Last Year's Kill 4,800.

Gordon said that with reasonable weather conditions the kill this year would total 7,000 deer and 550 bear. This would make by far the largest kill of deer in Pennsylvania in 40 years. Last season 4800 deer were bagged and the year before 3300.

Gordon pointed out that 20 years ago the average season's deer hunting yielded not more than 300 to 500. Since then game legislation, law enforcement, law observance, forest protection, and the establishment of game refuges have combined to improve hunting conditions until this season's record was in prospect.

Deer hunting in Pennsylvania should continue to improve under present game legislation until the annual hunt runs up to 10,000, Gordon said.

500 Bear Last Year.

"Twenty years ago a large hunting party could hunt for a week with hounds without sighting a single deer," Gordon said. "Today they could go over the same territory without dogs and sight 10 to 75. Bear hunting has likewise improved. In 1915 the year's kill was 300. Last year it was 500 and this year it may run up to 500."

1922 CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE TO FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS STARTS TODAY

The fifteen annual sale of Christmas Seals to fight tuberculosis opened today.

Christmas Seals sell for one cent each. Their most common use is on letters and packages but not as postage.

Since the Christmas Seal was first sold in 1907, the death rate from tuberculosis in Pennsylvania has dropped steadily from 148.7 per hundred thousand to 91.6 in 1921.

A larger sale of Christmas Seals is asked to further lessen this preventable plague.

The official Christmas Seal shows a mother holding a child in her arms, with the double-barred tuberculosis cross beside them. This picture graphically expresses the sentiment of the protective function of the tuberculosis crusade—to cure and prevent tuberculosis.

The Christmas Seal carries a greeting of good cheer and better health and makes this holiday slogan timely: "A Christmas Seal on Every Piece of Mail."

GREAT RECORD MADE BY CONTRACTOR ON DUFTON BUILDING

The work of enlarging and remodeling the Dufton Hardware Company building on Market street was completed on Tuesday last and the false work about the front that evening. The new front is now one of the neatest and nobbiest in the business district and makes a great addition to that end of town.

The improvement to the Dufton store consisted of the erection of a four story front 25x100 feet and all the work which was in charge of Contractor A. E. Hess, of Winburne, was begun on Labor Day. The work was pushed along with marvelous rapidity while the store continued doing business right along. The new addition is equipped with light well and double stairways and Mr. Hess can rightfully lay claim to the championship belt for rapid building construction on this job.

The Dufton store is now full four stories high and has the largest amount of floor space with one exception, of any store in town.

RAIN HARD ON THE HUNTING BUT FINE FOR WATER SUPPLY

Today's rain will probably greatly interfere with the sport of the small army of hunters who, having shouldered their "rusty trifles", have gone forth into the mountains to slay the elusive buck.

The morning dawned bright and clear but about nine the clouds began to gather and since then there has been an intermittant downpour which will mean many a game of "rummy", "seven-up" and the other great American indoor sport, "fanning" in the camps during the afternoon.

There was the usual rush of late dates at County Treasurer Rumberger's office on Wednesday afternoon but everyone got the coveted brown tag and went on their way rejoicing.

Today's rain will probably ease up the water situation considerably as the snow which fell during the fore part of the week would fill the ground with enough water so that today's rain will find its way into the streams.

The Moose Creek dam of the local water company is still out of service but if today's rain continues for any length of time it will probably go into service again. The Montgomery Reservoir is holding its own in fine shape notwithstanding the strain that the prolonged drouth has placed upon it.

GRID SEASON ENDS WHEN LOCALS WIN FROM CURWENSVILLE

With ideal weather conditions and the greatest crowd that ever attended a local football game on hand to cheer, Clearfield High defeated the representatives of Curwensville High School 15 to 7.

The upriver team was undoubtedly one of the largest elevens to appear on the Clearfield gridiron this season, and lashed a heavy attack with all the variations from Centre's "Notre Dame" to the old "chain gang" play but the local forwards analyzed the coming shifts and smeared them for losses three-fourths of the time. The game was slow and uninteresting as far as sensational football was concerned and the score does not indicate the real strength of the two elevens. Official figures show that Coach Reed's pupils out-rushed, out-kicked, a tighter defense, and gained much more yardage from either straight or trick football. On one occasion a Red and Black player ran 25 yards for a touchdown but was brought back, and three other times Clearfield rushed the ball to within a few inches of the Blue and Gold's goal, only to lose it by a fumble or down. When the first quarter was young, "Bill" Brown, star line plunger, was injured and had to be taken from the game. The burden of plunging at Curwensville has now rested on Hine Howe, who certainly did it in an aggressive manner. The locals would

Clearfield Counties Coming Across Fine In State College Drive

State College, Pa., Dec. 1.—Clearfield county residents are rallying to the support of the Pennsylvania State College emergency building fund campaign for $2,000,000 for student health and welfare buildings. Under the direction of an active campaign committee, this county is doing its share for the college of the state in the first public drive it has ever conducted for funds.

The college fund is rapidly nearing the half-way mark, and the assistance given by Clearfield countians has been duly appreciated by President John M. Thomas. Up to November 25 the following from this county had notified President Thomas that their names could be announced as subscribers to the fund:

J. W. Laing, Coalport; H. H. Hopwood, Curwensville; H. Floyd Wilson, Falls Creek; Ralph L. Bubchill, Houtzdale; Fred A. Seckinger, Madera; J. B. Byers, McGees Mills; K. Goodyear, Munson; W. H. Thompson, LaJose; M. J. Lenehan, Osceola Mills; Leonard A. Gearhart, E. W. Hess, Allison O. Smith, Kenneth L. Thorn, A. H. Reed, Harrison Stone, George I. Thurston, Louis Shapiro & Son, A. B. Progressives Plan Control of Congress

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Dec. 1.—Progressive Senators and House members in this congress, and those elected on November 7 to the 68th congress, gathered here today to organize a progressive bloc which will seek control of congressional machinery.

Headed by Senator Robert M. LaFollette, Wisconsin, the Progressives intend to band themselves together in support of a program which included these items:

1. Defeat of the Administration's ship subsidy and anti-strike legislation.

2. Forcing an extra session of the new congress shortly after March 4, 1923.

3. Enactment in the new congress of a large program of industrial and economic legislation.

Further than that, the aims of the Progressives had not been mapped out when the conference met today. Whether the Progressive movement as thus embodied in the national legislature will develop within the next two years into a third party is a question with which the Progressive leaders announced they would not now concern themselves.

Senator LaFollette was expected to be chosen today as chairman of the Progressive group.

It was uncertain when the conference met whether the farm bloc in House and Senate would agree to merge themselves in the new Progressive bloc and lose their identity, but Progressive leaders hoped this would be the result. The present movement, like the farm blocs, is bi-partisan, numbering Republicans and Democrats in its membership.

LaFollette was to open the conference with a statement to the Progressives. He said beforhand that he would tell his colleagues that in the November 7 election the people, under spur of political unrest and dissatisfaction with Republican and Democratic leadership, had clearly given the Progressives a mandate to take control of the House and Senate, by electing enough of them to hold the balance of power in both houses.

He will urge that an organization as definite and cohesive as the Senate and the House be formed by the Progressives, and that from now on they function as a distinct unit on all questions involving national interest.

LaFollette will suggest that the People's Legislative Service, organized by Progressives in 1920 be continued to keep the people informed on governmental affairs, and particularly on the activities of the Progressives.

A suggestion that the Progressives acquire newspapers in various parts of the country may be taken up by today's conference or by a larger meeting called for tomorrow, which will be attended by representative Progressive men and women from all sections of the nation.

take the ball on their own 40-yard line and push it toward their opponents' goal line 5 yards at a clip, with Howe doing most of the plunging. Then with the ball within scoring distance, the local fullback would be worn out, and lacked the final and important punch to put the ball over. A combination of Brown and Howe was the wonder worker in the DuBois game, and would have been the same against the Villagers, as any fair-minded spectator who watched the above two alternate in the opening minutes of the game against the heavy Curwensville forwards.

The Curwensville team put up a game fight and are to be congratulated on the splendid showing they made against such a well-tutored eleven as the Red and Black, who would have won by a greater score than rolled up against DuBois if Coach Black's pupils would have worked in their goal line defense.

A "graph" or "plot" of the game showed that the invading squad was in Clearfield's territory but once from scrimmage, while Capt. Witherow and his stars carried the ball within the enemy's end of the gridiron at all stages.

Clearfield scored 9 minutes after the opening whistle, when after kicking off to the visitors, Brunetti punted to Swede on the fifty-yard line. Off-tackle thrusts by Brown and Howe, end runs by Mitcheltree and Swede placed the ball on their opponents' 6-yard line, first down. Howe hit the line for 3 yards, Brown pushed the oval to the six-inch line, and Ham Howe smashed through the right side of Curwensville's line for a touchdown. Brown kicked the goal.

Clearfield's second score came in the second quarter, when after attempting a dropkick from the twenty yard line, it failed, a Clearfield man recovered on the 2-yard line, but the ball was given to the visitors. Capt Witherow broke through and blocked Brunetti's punt and End Mohney fell on the ball for a touchdown. Attempted dropkick failed. Time of touchdown, 9½ minutes after start of quarter.

That Curwensville Touchdown.

Shortly after the third quarter opened, a local pass was heaved to the right side of the line, and Left Guard Harold Starr jumped into the pass and with one man as interference ran 47 yards for a touchdown. Norris' placement goal was hurried and missed by yards.

Clearfield added two more points to her total by grounding a pass back of Curwensville's goal line, which the officials declared a safety.

For Clearfield, the playing the line featured, which held the heavy enemy backs' savage plunges to the smallest number of first downs of any team to date.

Moore, Betts and Wilson on the left played wonderful games while Barney, Pearce and Ganoe put up their usual air-tight defense. Capt Witherow outplayed his man, as two blocked punts testify.

Quarterback Swede, Brown, Hody Johnson, Mitcheltree and Howe starred as ground gainers. For Curwensville, LaPorte and Norris played stellar games in the backfield; Edwards, the colored end, stood out from his fellow linesmen. Brunetti's punting, while not as lengthy or well executed as Swede Johnson's, was commendable, as every boot was hurried by Clearfield men breaking through.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, say well-known druggists here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

COLLAR BONE BROKEN WHEN FORD MEETS FORD

As Dr. Harry Schaeffer, of Grampian was driving his Ford car north on Third street yesterday afternoon about 2 30, another Ford driven by James Brown with William Snedden as a passenger, both of Glen Richey came out of Pine street from Fourth and got together on the corner, with the result that Snedden is today nursing a broken collarbone.
Following the collision, Dr Shaeffer placed Snedden in his car and rushed him to the Clearfield Hospital where the injury was given proper attention.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Thanksgiving Day, its origin and history is contained in the following article, which should be of interest to all those who gave thanks yesterday.

The historian dipped quill in ink and prepared to write. He was about to chronicle an incident in the story of a party recently landed from the "shippe Ayde, of the Frobisher Expedition, which brought the first English settlers to the then very New World.

"On Monday morning, May 27, 1578," scratched the quill, "on board the Ayde (off Newfoundland coast) we received all the communication by the minister of Gravesend and prepared as good Christians toward God and resolute men for all fortunes and toward night we departed toward Tilberry Hope.

"Here we highly prayed God and altogether upon our knees gave him humble and hearty thanks and Maister WolfaH, a learned man appointed by her majesty's council to be our minister, made unto us a godlye sermon, exhorting all especially to be thankful to God for His strange and miraculous deliverance in those dangerous places."

This, it appears, was North America's initial Thanksgiving service.

The first record of any similar observance on the soil of what now is the United States was that of the Popham colonists at Sagadahoc, Me., in August, 1607.

But there were mere services.

A whole Thanksgiving day, beginning with worship, of course, but including also turkey and appropriate trimmings, was proclaimed by Governor Bradford of Massachusetts on Dec. 13, 1621.

This was the Thanksgiving day generally spoken of as our first.

In reality it lasted three days. The governor' proclamation designated only one, but the colonists enjoyed the feasting so much that they stretched it out.

The Pilgrims wanted some day they could celebrate. They took kindly to Thanksgiving.

True, some years they missed it, either because they were pretty busy or didn't feel very thankful, but other years they celebrated twice.

Once, just as the Massachusetts colonists were sitting down to a gorgeous spread, it was learned that a godless aborigine who had purveyed the vension and turkey for the occasion acquiring them, by sleight of bow and arrow, on the Lord's day.

For this the redskin was compelled to return the money paid to him and received thirty-nine lashes instead

"Having inflicted a just and righteous punishment on the sinful Indian," says the chronicle, "the company, with the exception of one member whose conscience was not satisfied, fell upon the meal and devoured it."

By 1684 the festival had become a regular annual event in Massachusetts. Before long it was observed similarly throughout all New England.

During the Revolution, the Continental congress recommended eight Thanksgiving days and General Washington two.

In September, 1789, Representative Boudino, asked congress to suggest to the president a day of thanks for the constitution

"In my opinion," said Representative Burke, objecting, "this would be a silly mimicking of European ways."

"And in mine," said Representative Tucker objecting too, "before giving thanks for the constitution, it would be well to try it for a while and see how it works."

Perhaps with turkey and cranberry sauce in mind, congress made the suggestion nevertheless and President Washington named Nov 26.

Various other personalities followed suit. Thomas Jefferson certainly was one of them, for it is of record that a certain Connecticut clergyman, in his Thanksgiving sermon, besought on behalf of the Monticello sage, as "our president," a goodly portion of divine grace

"For well, O Lord, thou knowest" the worthy pastor reminded his Diety, "how much he needeth it"

However, a presidential proclamation was by no means the invariable rule in those days. More often than not the governors of the various states were left to issue proclamations of their own and this they generally did thought not always for the same day.

Finally, just after Gettysburg, Mrs Sarah J. Hale of Philadelphia, sent a copy of Washington's first proclamation to President Lincoln, urging him to issue one of his own. Lincoln did, naming Aug. 6.

Since then a presidential proclamation has been issued every year, and with one exception the last Thursday in November always has been the day illiterate.

In twelve states the total gain in illiteracy was 117,344 during the period between 1910 and 1920. These states, according to the Legion, are for the most part those which have received the greatest influx of immigrants during the last decade

"The American Legion is apalled at the discovery of America's low standing among the great powers of the world in the point of literacy," the Legion's Americanism director stated. "The correction of this deplorable state of affairs will be one of the foremost activities of the Americanism Commission"

Corrective Steps.

Among the first steps which the Legion will take are the holding of an American Education Week, December 3 to 9 inclusive, and the undertaking of a fight for total exclusion of immigration for a period of five years. The Legion's hope is to eliminate illiteracy by 1927, according to Powell.

Starting Sunday, December 3 with sermons by ministers of all denominations, the Legion's week will be featured with addresses before civic bodies and in all schools. Speakers will touch on patriotism, naturalization of immigrants, respect to the flag, better pay for the teachers, better equipment for the school and physical education. Thursday, December 7, has been designated as "Illiteracy Day."

In co-operation with the National Education Association, the Legion has adopted as its slogan "Adopt an Illiterate Today" recommending that its members and other patriotic citizens teach immigrants to read and write and to make them familiar with American history, American institutions and system of government.

The Legion's attention was first called to condition of illiteracy existing in this country by the results of the psychological tests of the Army draft, Powel said. These tests showed that out of 1,552,256 persons examined, 240 per cent could neither read nor write.

A WISE WORD FROM AFAR

The fundamental reason at the bottom of this country's attitude toward Europe is admirably set forth by so distant a neighbor as the Sydney Morning Herald. The Australian newspaper reviews the several complaints against the United States, covering a period of years, and demonstrates that in each case time brought a perspective which justified this country, even if the justification brought no comfort to anyone else.

Specifically referring to the war debts, the Morning Herald says: "No doubt if she could see her way to remit those debts the position of Europe would be immensely improved. But can we fairly expect her to do this without some assurance of a quid pro quo, not in the material sense, but in the shape of a genuine attempt to heal the antagonisms which still distract Europe and to bring an era of peace and stability?"

This is an enlightened understanding of American psychology which never has seemed to penetrate European heads. It states, from an unprejudiced source, exactly the value this country sets on the foreign obligations to her, and points out the moral investment those debts represent.

What particularly galls Americans is the thought that money owed to this country, and even interest owed on that money, is used for selfish purposes which eventually in every instance lead to hostilities, distress and impoverishment which, in turn, appeal to the United States for relief. The vast sums this country has subscribed for aid to war sufferers—often in wars with which America had no concern, as in Anatolia—never has been regarded as other than a moral investment; nor is there any thought of cent for cent return on the part of the givers.

But so long as Europe shows no disposition to economy, but adds monthly to its destruction of resources by wars which are neither in the cause of liberty nor of self-defense, just so long this country is bound to feel that the money owed to it must remain as a loan which, in time, must compel recognition, a thought-review of the disasters of destructive extravagance, and a new spirit of self-help as the first step to liquid ating obligations.

"COMMUNITY DRAMA"—What It Is

The very term "Community Drama" is self-explanatory—that is, drama in which the entire community is interested or in some way concerned. To that end, the dramatic institute now being held in town has as its main object the organization of a Community Drama Committee as a part of Clearfield Community Service which shall have the following general purposes:

1. To give all individuals and groups an opportunity to take part in public and contributing art activities in the town, not only actors, but musicians, costumers, painters, designers, decorators, seamstresses, electricians, typists, those who will write and suggest plays, writers of music and pageants, those good at business details, and any and all willing to give any sort of service to the production and expression of dramatic art.

2. To show in pageantry, pantomime and tableaux the history of the town, the county, and important events in national history.

3. To see that the patriotic events of the nation are properly observed and to bring the entire community into some form of co-operation if not more than observers.

4. To discover and develop leaders in all lines of dramatic activity, to encourage talent of all kinds and to assist efforts to express original and artistic ideas.

5. To develop wider reading by keeping the best plays before the community both by productions and systematic publicity, as reviews in the papers, talks on plays at stated periods, etc.

6. To interest all dramatic clubs in the town and secure their active aid and co-operation in productions for the community.

The departments of a Community Drama Committee are:

1. Story Telling, which conducts the story hours on the playgrounds during the summer and at other determined places and times, trains stor tellers, and puts on a Story Telling Festival some time during the year, usually at the end of the summer.

2. Festivals, which are given free to the public on special occasions, as May Day, Harvest time, Flag Day, etc.

3. Pageantry, for patriotic occasions, generally of an historic character, as on the Fourth of July when great events in the history of the town, county, state and nation may be depicted.

4. Play Production, with the object of giving regular performances free or at a nominal charge to the community, generally through the clubs already organized, except for one play a year of a notable type or special interest.

5. Training, designed to secure producers and club leaders in dramatics, read to assist all groups or organizations desiring them, as in staging, lighting, make-up, etc.

6. Play Writing, to interest those who write or have the desire in adaptations, dramatizations and writing plays, pageants, festivals, etc.

An immediate program for such a committee is to gather data and begin the preparation of an historical pageant of their town to be produced on the Fourth of July or at some other suitable time.

Usually three definite objects are enough for the first year, and the pageant, one community play and a playground festival will be found of general interest and effective for working up enthusiasm and co-operation in a more extended program for the future.

CONGRESSMAN MANN, REP. FLOOR LEADER, DIES AT THE CAPITAL

Washington, Nov. 30.—Representative James R. Mann of Illinois died at his home here tonight after a brief illness.

Mr. Mann, who had served for a quarter of a century as a member of the House, was stricken a week ago, first with a chill. Pneumonia developed, his condition became desperate, and the end came at 11:15 p. m.

The veteran legislator and former Republican floor leader, an ardent advocate of the shipping bill, sent word to House leaders early in the week, and again yesterday, that, while he was ill, he would go to the Capitol and help in the fight if needed.

In the words of friend and foe, Mr. Mann was the best informed man on the details of government that ever sat in the halls of congress.

The outstanding features of his long career as a member of the House of Representatives—extending over a period of more than a century—were absolute courage and independence and knowledge of legislation, pending and past. There was nothing too little to escape his eye; there was no man or measure he feared to attack.

Chas. Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Driggs and Mrs. MaWhinney passed through Orlando Saturday on their way to Pinellas Park. They report roads good excepting 40 miles enter-

TRAGEDY STALKS IN WAKE OF HOLIDAY; CRIME IS RAMPANT

Tragedy stalks in the wake of a joyful Thanksgiving it appears today from a resume of the many horrifying stories coming in over the wire, The Progress preferring to make only a mere mention of some of them.

At Passaic, N. J., the body of an unidentified young woman about nineteen years of age was found near a florist's hot house. Authorities believe the girl had been brought to the spot after having been the victim of an attack. Death was due to strangulation.

A. H. Cavin, a prominent resident of the Youngwood district of Pittsburg, was instantly killed when struck by the Uniontown express at 10:15 this morning.

Two men are dead and two are believed to be dying as a result of two separate pistol battles in Philadelphia, one in a house and one on the street.

Two other men are dead in the Woods Run district of Pittsburg after a stabbing affray on Thanksgiving evening in which five men were injured in addition to the two who were killed.

An unidentified man, probably about thirty years of age, was found in the swamps on the outskirts of the city of Wilmington, Delaware. The clothing was burned from the body.

Police are searching for the driver of a large touring car which crashed into an automobile driven by Dr. Goodell on Bigelow Boulevard early today then made his escape. Miss Gertrude Goodell, sister of the doctor, it is feared is injured internally. In all three were injured.

talented lot of performers, and for a wonderful purpose. Before we tell you what it is all about we are going to say that the admission is only fifty and twenty-five cents.

For this admission there will be three performances, a regular Keith circuit of Amusement and beauty bit of an altogether different character.

First there will be the one act play, "The Magic Path," a fantasy by fifty Third Ward school children. A beautiful spectacle.

Second, "The Happy Man" a one act play with fourteen in the cast. A humorous playlet that is well worth the admission.

Third, "His Japanese Wife" another one act play with cast of five High School and adults.

These three plays represent the three types of plays usually given in a community.

The proceeds go to the Milk Fund for the Nutrition Classes in the schools, a most worthy project, and we know you will be glad to help along.

Naturally the plays have been staged by the Community Service organization and that is a guarantee of its success. Buy your tickets early. The auditorium is going to be crowded.

Men Not Party

whose Senatorial record there seemed no blots. Nebraska, too, elected a Democratic governor. In New York, Al Smith was elected governor over Nathan L. Miller largely because "Al" projected his personality so strongly the voters could not resist him. The New York campaign was based on state and national issues.

Primary the Issue.

Senator Borah's Idaho campaign, though it did not involve his seat in the Senate, was another example of the way the voters this year followed men they believed in. Borah faced the organized opposition of his party leaders in an effort to get the Senatorial primary restored, in place of the convention system. So potent was his appeal to the voters that it became evident long before election day that no matter what the complexion of the next legislature, Idaho would have a primary law. And the Republican gubernatorial candidate was forced, in the end, to recant his opposition and to agree, tacitly, that he would sign the primary law.

Senator Lodge ran into the new independence of the voters in a way startling to him. Gov. Channing Cox was re-elected governor by 50,000 or more. Lodge barely got through. In the old days, Lodge nearly always led the ticket. But this year the voters made up their own tickets, and didn't just put a cross under the party emblem, accepting the selections of party leaders.

In Indiana, the alibi which Harry New and A. J. Beveridge can offer is that "somebody knifed me." Indiana is rapidly becoming an unpleasant state for a politician to inhabit. New was "knifed" by one set in the primaries and now Beveridge's friends charge New's supporters "knifed" Beveridge in the election. And both sets of knife wielders are getting ready to use their blades on "Jim" Watson when he comes up for re-election.

In Michigan, Townsend lost because of the Newberry case. His friends blame Henry Ford. In New Jersey, Frelinghuysen's dry record and his Newberry vote tell why he got beaten.

In Kansas, J. M. Davis, Democrat beat W. Y. Morgan, Republican, for governor because of Henry Allen, the present governor. Allen's industrial court was distasteful to many citizens, including organized labor.

Nearly everywhere the same thing was true---it was men and not great national issues which made up the voters' minds.

Uses of Gypsum.

Crude gypsum is used in Portland cement manufacture, for soil dressing, as an adulterant in flour, sugar and baking powder, and in the manufacture of crayons. Blocks of clear, white gypsum called alabaster are used by artists and sculptors. So it may be seen that ancient Egyptians were aware of the use of one of our most valuable modern materials when they plastered the commodious tides of old Cheops with gypsum.

MISS JORDAN HAPPY AT PROSPECT OF REMAINING IN U. S.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Miss Nancy Jordan, pretty English unmarried mother released from Ellis Island yesterday, today radiated happiness. "It is good to be free again," she said. Referring to her three year old son, Francis, whom she calls Frank she said "I was sure all the time that Frank and I would not be excluded from this country but was very much discouraged when compelled to wait a whole week for a decision."

Mrs. Mary Warren, who knew Miss Jordan in England four years ago, played with Frank today and said she was very glad to have Miss Jordan go home with her. The girl has repeatedly denied that Mrs. Warren's former husband is the father of the child.

KANE IS SATISFIED AT ACCOMPLISHMENT IN HIS CAMPAIGN

Clearfield Progress,
Clearfield, Pa.
Gentlemen:

Do you think your readers might be interested in figures showing what a thorough licking I received on November 7th? The vote for Congress of the 23rd district, reported from Harrisburg, is as follows:

	Swoope (Rep.-Soc.)	Snyder (Dem.)	Kane (Prd.)
Cameron	836	469	197
Centre	5,231	5,205	585
Clearfield	7,044	6,891	1,302
McKean	6,817	2,228	1,957
Totals	16,928	14,292	4,041

As far as getting elected is concerned, my campaign has been a flat failure. But as I spent no money except for advocacy of my economic theories through your columns and by my circular letter, I feel that neither my money nor time was wasted. Although I did not gain what I sought I have lost nothing.

Yours truly,
ELISHA K. KANE.

HAZEL—MOORE

Monday evening in the West Side M. E. parsonage the pastor, W. L. Armstrong, united in matrimony Mr. John W. Hazel and Miss Ella M. Moore, both of Clearfield. They will dwell among us, abiding on Hannah street. Their many friends wish them blessing on their voyage.

Easy to Effect Saving.

The prospect of a rise in the price of mustard should not cause much consternation; is there any item on which a saving could more easily be effected? The head of a famous firm that has built a fortune upon the manufacture of mustard once confessed that the money came to him not from the mustard we use but the mustard we waste. Not one of us but proves the truth of the statement every time we use the mustard pot and dab down on the side of our plate five times the quantity we are likely to eat.

Do You Get Up Nights On Account of Bladder?

This Symptom Tells You Something Is Wrong. A Dayton Man's Experience

Mr. John Lumpkins, 7 Carrie St., Dayton, Ohio, says in his own home paper, the Dayton Herald: "For two years I had to get up from ten to twenty times each night. The scalding and pain was awful. After taking a few bottles of Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula), the pain came, until at least twenty-five pieces have passed. Some were as large as an acorn. I am glad to have this way of telling my fellow sufferers about this great new remedy."

Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder like Epsom Salts on the bowels. It cleans them out and helps to relieve the bladder of abnormal deposits. The kidneys don't do much. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several ingredients, which are useful for relief. Many doctors prescribe the package. It is likely that a few doses will relieve anything similar. Try it for backache, scalding, scanty or high-colored urine and frequent desire at night.

Be sure to get the Keller formula Lithiated Buchu everywhere, or write The Keller Laboratories, at 1328 Stewart's Drug Store and drug counter, Dayton, Ohio.

CANARY ISLANDS NOT SO CANARY

Gibraltar, Dec. 1.—Canaries are scarcer than hens' teeth in the Canary Islands, according to the U. S. Marines of the cruiser Pittsburg, who arrived here recently after a visit to Las Palmas, the principal seaport of those islands.

The Marines expected to find canaries hopping all over the islands, waiting for salt to be sprinkled on their tails. Disillusionment came with their first visit ashore.

The islands got their name from Canis, the Latin name for dog, and the Marines say there are fewer canaries in the Canaries than there are snakes in Ireland.

Relatives and sweethearts of the sea soldiers who were promised a shipment of feathered songsters at an early date, will now have to wait until the Marines have an opportunity to visit a bird store in the United States.

Any Marine on the Pittsburg is ready to sell a canary cage for a song.

HUGHEY—SIPE

Saturday evening in the West Side M. E. parsonage, the pastor, W. L. Armstrong, using the ring ceremony, sealed the bonds of matrimony for Mr. Harry Hughey of Brackwayville, Pa., and Miss Pearl Elsie Sipe of Clearfield R. D. 2 in the presence of the bride's mother and sister. They intend to embark on their journey in the land of Goshen. Blessings attend thee, is the wish of friends.

CURWENSVILLE

Curwensville public schools will observe American Educational Week, which commences on December 3d and continues until December 9th. Following are the subjects for that time: Sunday, December 3d, "For God and Country;" 4th, "American Citizenship Day;" 5th, "Patriotism Day," 6th, "School and Teachers Day," 7th, "Illiteracy Day" and evening meeting in Patton building; 8th, "Equality of Opportunity;" 9, "Physical Education Day." These subjects will occupy a large part of the class room work each day during the week. Patrons are asked to visit the schools during the week and the teachers are asked to exemplify these various subjects by suitable recitations and drills. The Curwensville schools have one great central purpose in observing American Educational Week this year and that purpose is PERFECTION.

WINBURNE

The annual meeting of the Winburne Free Library Association took place last Thursday evening, Nov. 23, 1922, at the Presbyterian church. A fair-sized representation was present. Mrs. R. H. Sommerville was elected trustee to succeed herself. D. M. Bloom was elected to succeed Prof Ira Hoffman, who has removed from the community.

It is contemplated to move the library to a new location on account of the crowded condition at the Post Office. A resolution of thanks was rendered Postmaster Max. A. Crain and his assistant, Miss Lydia Fulmar for their services in connection with the library the past year. The committee on a new location consists of Mrs. Sommerville, Mrs. P. J. Baer and Miss Sarah Huling. It is thought of the committee to secure a room in the Miller-Henritzy building.

The Treasurer, Mr. R. H. George reported $237.62 as the total receipts the past year. There is a considerable balance in the hands of the Total number of books in the library 130; additions are made as the funds and book shelves allow; total number of registered borrowers, 326. Information coming from Harrisburg states this is the only public library in Clearfield county excepting DuBois. The trustees had a meeting immediately following the Association's and elected officers for the coming year:

President, Rev. Benj. Thomas.
Secretary, Mrs. J. G. Miller.
Treasurer, Mr. R. H. George.

A news item states that Dublin, New Hampshire has recently celebrated the 100th anniversary of its public library. It holds the honor to be the first public library established in the United States. It was founded by Rev. Levi Leonard, pastor of a church there.

Last Friday, Nov. 24, a large gathering of friends and relatives assembled at the Presby. church where the funeral services of Mrs James Jamison was held. She was 79 years of age and leaves a husband and six living children. The services were conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Benj. Thomas. He emphasized two thoughts "All must die.' and "How to die happy."

Misses Sarah Huling and Margaret 'Judge' have gone to Saratoga Springs, N. Y., to spend a week with 'Miss Sarah Mudge, a sophomore at Skidmore College.

Miss Mary A. Thomas, a Freshman at Marysville College (Tennessee) was invited to take part in a recital given recently at the college under the auspices of the Musical Department.

COOPER TWP. HIGH HOLDS BURGERS TO FOURTEEN POINTS

The doughty football warriors from the High School on the Hill down in Coopey township, held the strong Philipsburg High eleven to a 14-0 score in a hotly contested game at Philipsburg yesterday afternoon.

Starting right in with a whirlwind attack, the Burgers worked the ball to within two feet of the coveted Cooper chalkline, where they were met by a stone wall defense and lost the ball on downs. Following this the Burgers worked the aerial game and scored on a forward pass to Russell after which the point was made from play making the score at the end of the first quarter 7-0.

The second and third quarters were devoid of tallies but were marked with some sensational football. Unable to gain through the adamant defense built up by Coach Lebo, the Burgers again took to the aerial game which came near being their downfall. Intercepting one of Philipsburg's passes, Maurey, a young Cooperite with less than three months' experience chasing the pigskin, started down the field with plenty of trailers. The trailers caught the lad only after he had put six and one-half chalklines to the rear of his thrumming feet. It brought the crowd up standing and was easily the feature of the game.

As the shades of night were fast falling, Philipsburg again started the aerial game and with about three minutes to play Gette, the Burgers' fast running back, gathered in a pass and crossed the Cooper line.

Considering that Coach Lebo has a squad consisting mostly of men who have never played the game before, Cooper township went down to defeat with their colors flying and, given another year's experience, will undoubtedly be a team to reckon with

Opening of TOYLAND

On Friday Morning, Rain or Shine;
When the Court House Clock Tolls Out Its Nine

LITTLE boy, little girl, come take hold of my hand,
And we'll wander off to a wonderful land,
Where blocks to build castles are shiny and red,
And for each darling doll there's a dear little bed.
Oh, Toyland, my dears, is a wonderful place
Lighted up all around with old Santa's dear face!

Trains that go whizzing around glistening tracks
Are some of the things Santa brought in his packs,
There's a woolly white lamb that goes "Bah, bah,"
And a dolly that walks and can say "Mama,"
Oh, Toyland, my dears, is a wonderful place
Lighted up all around with old Santa's dear face!

Yes indeed Santa Claus from his home in the north,
Behind Donner and Blitzen again sallied forth,
And he's right here in Toyland to talk with each child,
And to give you a present—way high are they piled.
Oh, Toyland, my dears, is a wonderful place
Lighted up all around with old Santa's dear face!

Mother will bring you to Toyland, I know,
If to school and to bed right on time you will go;
And when you're asleep and sail out on a dream
You'll think of the toys that are here to be seen.
Oh, Toyland, my dears, is a wonderful place
Lighted up all around with old Santa's dear face!

ME!, NOT PARTY WAS WHAT VOTER LOOKED AT NOVEMBER 7TH

Lawrence Martin, Expert Analyst for U. P., Endeavors to Tell Just "How It Happened."

MANY TURNOVERS

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Dec. 1. (U. P.)—The alibi and the postmortem are the order of the day among the "lame ducks" who were "winged" in the Congressional elections.

"How did it ever happen to me?" they have begun asking themselves. The answers are interesting, and they point a moral to politicians who are trying to profit by the mistakes of 1922, so that they will not fail in 1924.

Examination of the causes underlying the defeat of some of the veterans who had long occupied places of prominence in the Senate emphasizes, first of all, the new independence of American voters.

Before the election it was apparent that the public was not following national issues. After the election it was clear that national issues were almost wholly neglected and that men stood or fell almost entirey upon their records and their political personalities.

In Ohio, Pomerene, a Democratic Senator of the highest standing and recognized ability was snowed under despite a Democratic state victory. Union labor did for Pomerene. He displayed great independence towards organized labor, and labor in turn got even when it came to voting for Senator. The "radical drys" also apparently voted against him.

In Nebraska, the drys beat Senator Hitchcock, another Democrat, against

TWO ACCUSE EACH OTHER OF MOST BRUTAL SLAYING

New York, N. Y., Dec. 1.—Abraham Becker the dead woman's husband and Reuben Norkin, a neighborhood garage keeper, are both locked up to day, each accusing the other of the murder of Mrs. Becker. Mrs. Becker had been missing for several months and her body was found in the garage today. Decker denied that the body found was that of his wife but later declared that it was and accused Norkin of slaying his wife because of an altercation of an auto repair bill. He said he did not tell of his suspicion about Norkin because he was afraid of Norkin. The crime was most cold blooded one, the body having been terribly mutilated and abused.

DISORDER IN CITY OF MEXICO BECAUSE OF WATER SUPPLY

Mexico City, Mexico, Dec. 1.—Between fifteen and thirty persons were killed and probably two hundred wounded in rioting last night and early today in this city when thousands attacked the city hall demanding the resignation of three city officials whose negligence the mob declared was responsible for the falling down of the city's water supply. A flood a week ago washed out some of the important feeders and the city has been without an adequate water supply since. The disorders made the night one of terror. When the mob surged to the doors of the city hall, fanatical leaders urging them to take the hall by storm, troops fired point blank into the mob causing large casualties and infuriating the mob which marched, fought and sang militant songs during the night.

VENIZELOS THINKS GREEK REPUBLIC IS PROBABLE

Athens, Greece, Dec. 1.—Former Premier Venizelos of Greece today forecasted a republic for Greece. The country, torn by dissention because of the execution of six former cabinet member accused of malfeasance in office, is in a chaotic state. The people are ripe for a republic," said the former premier today in addressing friends and press.

NEWS FROM THE HUNTING CAMPS

Who's who and what's what in the hunting camps is going to be a little slow this year if every day is like this one. Telephone lines are down to many of them and the hunters, owing to the weather, are not stirring around much. The Schrote camp is about the only one we have heard of that has a buck strung up on their front porch though no doubt there are others.

Pot hunters, however, have the usual luck. Lester Snyder, of Hyde City, drove out the Penfield Pike this morning and met a 150 pound buck with eight points near the State House. That was the end of the buck. Ed. Livergood of Woodland, also was a tourist hunter, he bringing down a fine seven pointer near where Snyder got his.

Preserve Keeper Dearick has no less than twenty automobiles parking on his lawn today and is thinking seriously of charging for parking space.

Early this morning a drove of five deer was sighted by John Boyce at the Crystal Springs Camp, among them a fine pronged buck, and since this was just what our friend John was looking for, he opened fire. A deer fell, but it happened to have been a doe which sprang into the line of sight just as the trigger was pulled. Mr. Boyce immediately hunted up a game official and squared himself with the law while the doe was sent to the hospital where patients will have a venison feed.

Misses Sue West and Elizabeth Hazeltine, of Barnesboro, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Ruth Evans.

Mrs. M. P. McDonald, of Fourth street, was called to DuBois today on account of the death of her brother, Patrick Eagan, who died at the DuBois hospital following a surgical operation.

A. L. PROPOSES THE NATION LIFT SELF FROM ILLITERACY

Americanism Committee Finds United States Eleventh In Census of Educated Peoples.

MANY ILLITERATE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23. (United Press.)Germany, whose autocratic ambitions the members of the American Legion helped to crush, now leads the world in literacy. This discovery was made by the Legions' Americanism Commission according to a statement made public today by Garland W. Powell, national director of the commission.

U. S. Is Eleventh.

The United States, which has boasted of its public schools, is found by the Legion to be eleventh on the literacy list of leading nations, the statement says.

Countries which have fewer illiterates than America, according to Powell, are, in relative order: Germany, Denmark, Switzerland, Holland, Finland, Norway, Sweden, Scotland, England and Wales and France.

Six In Hundred Cannot Read.

The estimate of the 1920 census showing more than five million persons or six per cent of the American population, is illiterate, is too low, Powell states, because a confession of illiteracy to a census taker was necessary to enroll the person in the list of those who can neither read nor write. This made it easy for the illiterate to conceal his ignorance, since there was no test of literacy. A person who could read and write only a few words was not classified as an

SENATE WILL GET SUBSIDY BILL FROM HOUSE ON MONDAY

Washington, Dec. 1.—The administration shipping bill, around which was waged the most bitter fight of the present congress, was passed Thursday by the House with 24 votes to spare. The final count was 208 to 184.

Sixty-nine Republicans broke away from their party organization and opposed the bill, while four Democrats supported it.

There never was much doubt about the results, but the margin by which it went through was much lower than estimates publicly given by most of the leaders. It was, however, just about what they figured on privately.

Monday the measure will go to the Senate committee, which plans to accept it as passed by the House, and then take its place on the floor.

HALL CASE

NOW JOINS FAMOUS CRIMES PIGEONHOLED AS 'UNSOLVED'

New Brunswick, N. J., Dec. 1.—The Hall-Mills murder case has gone into the dusty pigeon-hole of crime's unsolved mysteries.

The Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and his choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, murdered here nearly three months ago, have joined the hall of fame along with such famous figures as Dorothy Arnold, Joseph Elwell and William Desmond Taylor.

Failure of the grand jury to indict anybody in the double murder suggests to criminologists the question: Is the Hall-Mills case permanently pigeonholed?

Two other famous cases remain unsolved mysteries.

Dorothy Arnold disappeared Dec. 12, 1910. She was never seen again after coming out of a Fifth Avenue book store in New York that day.

Secret search went on until Jan. 25, 1911, when the case was reported to the police. Since then a fortune has been spent running down thousands of clues and it is still unknown whether she was murdered, kidnapped or committed suicide.

For two and a half years every effort has failed to solve the mystery of the murder of Joseph Bowne Elwell, bridge whist expert and turfman.

Elwell was found in his New York apartment in the early morning of June 11, 1920, dying of a bullet wound in the forehead. The suicide theory was discarded but his assassin has never been found.

Most recent of other famous unsolved mysteries, prior to the killing of the Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills last Sept. 14, was the murder of William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, in his Los Angeles home Feb. 2 of this year.

1922 CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE TO FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS STARTS TODAY

The fifteen annual sale of Christmas Seals to fight tuberculosis opened today.

Christmas Seals sell for one cent each. Their most common use is on letters and packages but not as postage.

Since the Christmas Seal was first sold in 1907, the death rate from tuberculosis in Pennsylvania has dropped steadily from 148.7 per hundred thousand to 91.6 in 1921.

A larger sale of Christmas Seals is asked to further lessen this preventable plague.

The official Christmas Seal shows a mother holding a child in her arms, with the double-barred tuberculosis cross beside them. This picture graphically expresses the sentiment of the protective function of the tuberculosis crusade—to cure and prevent tuberculosis.

The Christmas Seal carries a greeting of good cheer and better health and makes this holiday slogan timely: "A Christmas Seal on Every Piece of Mail."

GREAT RECORD MADE BY CONTRACTOR ON DUFTON BUILDING

The work of enlarging and remodeling the Dufton Hardware Company building on Market street was completed on Tuesday last and the false work about the front that evening. The new front is now one of the neatest and nobbiest in the business district and makes a great addition to that end of town.

The improvement to the Dufton store consisted of the erection of a four story front 25x100 feet and all the work which was in charge of Contractor A. E. Hess, of Winburne, was begun on Labor Day. The work was pushed along with marvelous rapidity while the store continued doing business right along. The new addition is equipped with light well and double stairways and Mr. Hess can rightfully lay claim to the championship belt for rapid building construction on this job.

The Dufton store is now full four stories high and has the largest amount of floor space with one exception, of any store in town.

RAIN HARD ON THE HUNTING BUT FINE FOR WATER SUPPLY

Today's rain will probably greatly interfere with the sport of the small army of hunters who, having shouldered their "rusty trifles", have gone forth into the mountains to slay the elusive buck.

The morning dawned bright and clear but about nine the clouds began to gather and since then there has been an intermittant downpour which will mean many a game of "rummy", "seven-up" and the other great American indoor sport, "fanning" in the camps during the afternoon.

There was the usual rush of late dates at County Treasurer Rumberger's office on Wednesday afternoon but everyone got the coveted brown tag and went on their way rejoicing.

Today's rain will probably ease up the water situation considerably as the snow which fell during the fore part of the week would fill the ground with enough water so that today's rain will find its way into the streams.

The Moose Creek dam of the local water company is still out of service but if today's rain continues for any length of time it will probably go into service again. The Montgomery Reservoir is holding its own in fine shape notwithstanding the strain that the prolonged drouth has placed upon it.

GRID SEASON ENDS WHEN LOCALS WIN FROM CURWENSVILLE

With ideal weather conditions and the greatest crowd that ever attended a local football game on hand to cheer, Clearfield High defeated the representatives of Curwensville High School 15 to 7.

The upriver team was undoubtedly one of the largest elevens to appear on the Clearfield gridiron this season, and lashed a heavy attack with all the variations from Centre's "kick-shift" to the old "chain gang" play but the local forwards analyzed the coming shifts and smeared them for losses three-fourths of the time. The game was slow and uninteresting as far as sensational football was concerned and the score does not indicate the real strength of the two elevens. Official figures show that Coach Reed's pupils out-rushed, out-kicked, a tighter defense, and gained much more yardage from either straight or trick football. On one occasion a Red and Black player ran 25 yards for a touchdown but was brought back, and three other times Clearfield rushed the ball to within a few inches of the Blue and Gold's goal, only to lose it by a fumble or down. When the first quarter was young, "Bill" Brown, star line plunger, was injured and had to be taken from the game. The burden of plunging at Curwensville has now rested on Hine Howe, who certainly did it in an aggressive manner. The locals would

State College, Pa., Dec. 1.—Clearfield county residents are rallying to the support of the Pennsylvania State College centenary alumni fund campaign for $2,000,000 for student health and welfare purposes. Under the direction of an alumni campaign committee, this county is doing its share for the college of the state in the first public drive it has ever conducted for funds.

The college fund is rapidly nearing the half-way mark, and the assistance given by Clearfield countians has been duly appreciated by President John M. Thomas. Up to November 25 the following from this county had notified President Thomas that their names could be announced as subscribers to the fund:

J. W. Laing, Coalport; H. H. Hopwood, Curwensville; H. Floyd Wilson, Falls Creek; Ralph L. Bubchill, Houtzdale; Fred A. Seckinger, Madera; J. B. Byers, McGees Mills; K. Goodyear, Munson; W. H. Thompson, LaJose; M. J. Lenehan, Osceola Mills; Leonard A. Gearhart, E. W. Hess, Allison O. Smith, Kenneth L. Thorn, A. H. Reed, Harrison Stroup, George I. Thurston, Louis Shapiro & Son, A. B. Progressives Plan Control of Congress

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Dec. 1.—Progressive Senators and House members in this congress, and those elected on November 7 to the 68th congress, gathered here today to organize a progressive bloc which will seek control of congressional machinery.

Headed by Senator Robert M. LaFollette, Wisconsin, the Progressives intend to band themselves together in support of a program which included these items:

1. Defeat of the Administration's ship subsidy and anti-strike legislation.

2. Forcing an extra session of the new congress shortly after March 4, 1923.

3. Enactment in the new congress of a large program of industrial and economic legislation.

Further than that, the aims of the Progressives had not been mapped out when the conference met today. Whether the Progressive movement as thus embodied in the national legislature will develop within the next two years into a third party is a question with which the Progressive leaders announced they would not now concern themselves.

Senator LaFollette was expected to be chosen today as chairman of the Progressive group.

It was uncertain when the conference met whether the farm bloc in House and Senate would agree to merge themselves in the new Progressive bloc and lose their identity, but Progressive leaders hoped this would be the result. The present movement, like the farm blocs, is bi-partisan, numbering Republicans and Democrats in its membership.

LaFollette was to open the conference with a statement to the Progressives. He said beforhand that he would tell his colleagues that in the November 7 election the people, under spur of political unrest and dissatisfaction with Republican and Democratic leadership, had clearly given the Progressives a mandate to take control of the House and Senate, by electing enough of them to hold the balance of power in both houses.

He will urge that an organization as definite and cohesive as the Senate and the House be formed by the Progressives, and that from now on they function as a distinct unit on all questions involving national interest.

LaFollette will suggest that the People's Legislative Service, organized by Progressives in 1920 be continued to keep the people informed on governmental affairs, and particularly on the activities of the Progressives.

A suggestion that the Progressives acquire newspapers in various parts of the country may be taken up by today's conference or by a larger meeting called for tomorrow, which will be attended by representative Progressive men and women from all sections of the nation.

BEST BIG GAME SEASON IN ALL HISTORY-'GORDON'

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1. (U. P.)—The best big game hunting season in the history of the State was predicted by Secretary Seth Gordon of the Game Commission today.

Last Year's Kill 4,800.

Gordon said that with reasonable weather conditions the kill this year would total 7,000 deer and 550 bear. This would make by far the largest kill of deer in Pennsylvania in 40 years. Last season 4800 deer were bagged and the year before 3300.

Gordon pointed out that 20 years ago the average season's deer hunting yielded not more than 300 to 500. Since then game legislation, law enforcement, law observance, forest protection, and the establishment of game refuges have combined to improve hunting conditions until this season's record was in prospect.

Deer hunting in Pennsylvania should continue to improve under present game legislation until the annual hunt runs up to 10,000, Gordon said.

500 Bear Last Year.

"Twenty years ago a large hunting party could hunt for a week with hounds without sighting a single deer," Gordon said. "Today they could go over the same territory without dogs and sight 10 to 75. Bear hunting has likewise improved. In 1915 the year's kill was 300. Last year it was 500 and this year it may run up to 500."

take the ball on their own 40-yard line and push it toward their opponents' goal line 5 yards at a clip, with Howe doing most of the plunging. Then with the ball within scoring distance, the local fullback would be worn out, and lacked the final and important punch to put the ball over. A combination of Brown and Howe was the wonder worker in the DuBois game, and would have been the same against the Villagers, as any fair-minded spectator who watched the above two alternate in the opening minutes of the game against the heavy Curwensville forwards.

The Curwensville team put up a game fight and are to be congratulated on the splendid showing they made against such a well-tutored eleven as the Red and Black, who would have won by a greater score than rolled up against DuBois if Coach Black's pupils would have worked in their goal line defense.

A "graph" or "plot" of the game showed that the invading squad was in Clearfield's territory but once from scrimmage, while Capt. Witherow and his stars carried the ball within the enemy's end of the gridiron at all stages.

Clearfield scored 9 minutes after the opening whistle, when after kicking off to the visitors, Brunetti punted to Swede on the fifty-yard line. Off-tackle thrusts by Brown and Howe, end runs by Mitcheltree and Swede placed the ball on their opponents' 6-yard line, first down. Howe hit the line for 3 yards, Brown pushed the oval to the six-inch line, and Ham Howe smashed through the right side of Curwensville's line for a touchdown. Brown kicked the goal.

Clearfield's second score came in the second quarter, when after attempting a dropkick from the twenty yard line, it failed, a Clearfield man recovered on the 2-yard line, but the ball was given to the visitors. Capt Witherow broke through and blocked Brunetti's punt and End Mohney fell on the ball for a touchdown. Attempted dropkick failed. Time of touchdown, 9½ minutes after start of quarter.

That Curwensville Touchdown.

Shortly after the third quarter opened, a local pass was heaved to the right side of the line, and Left Guard Harold Starr jumped into the pass and with one man as interference ran 47 yards for a touchdown. Norris' placement goal was hurried and missed by yards.

Clearfield added two more points to her total by grounding a pass back of Curwensville's goal line, which the officials declared a safety.

For Clearfield, the playing the line featured, which held the heavy enemy backs' savage plunges to the smallest number of first downs of any team to date.

Moore, Betts and Wilson on the left played wonderful games while Barney, Pearce and Ganoe put up their usual air-tight defense. Capt Witherow outplayed his man, as two blocked punts testify.

Quarterback Swede, Brown, Hody Johnson, Mitcheltree and Howe starred as ground gainers. For Curwensville, LaPorte and Norris played stellar games in the backfield; Edwards, the colored end, stood out from his fellow linesmen. Brunetti's punting, while not as lengthy or well executed as Swede Johnson's, was commendable, as every boot was hurried by Clearfield men breaking through.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, say well-known druggists here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise waiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

COLLAR BONE BROKEN WHEN FOR MEETS FORD

As Dr. Harry Schaeffer, of Grampian was driving his Ford car north on Third street yesterday afternoon about 2 30, another Ford driven by James Brown with William Snedden as a passenger, both of Glen Richey came out of Pine street from Fourth and got together on the corner, with the result that Snedden is today nursing a broken collarbone.

Following the collision, Dr Shaeffer placed Snedden in his car and rushed him to the Clearfield Hospital where the injury was given proper attention.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Thanksgiving Day, its origin and history is contained in the following article, which should be of interest to all those who gave thanks yesterday.

The historian dipped quill in ink and prepared to write. He was about to chronicle an incident in the story of a party recently landed from the "shippe Ayde, of the Frobisher Expedition, which brought the first English settlers to the then very New World.

"On Monday morning, May 27, 1578," scratched the quill, "on board the Ayde (off Newfoundland coast) we received all the communication by the minister of Gravesend and prepared as good Christians toward God and resolute men for all fortunes and toward night we departed toward Tilberry Hope.

"Here we highly prayed God and altogether upon our knees gave him humble and hearty thanks and Maister WolfaH, a learned man appointed by her majesty's council to be our minister, made unto us a godlye sermon, exhorting all especially to be thankful to God for His strange and miraculous deliverance in those dangerous places."

This, it appears, was North America's initial Thanksgiving service.

The first record of any similar observance on the soil of what now is the United States was that of the Popham colonists at Sagadahoc, Me., in August, 1607.

But there were mere services.

A whole Thanksgiving day, beginning with worship, of course, but including also turkey and appropriate trimmings, was proclaimed by Governor Bradford of Massachusetts on Dec. 13, 1621.

This was the Thanksgiving day generally spoken of as our first.

In reality it lasted three days. The governor' proclamation designated only one, but the colonists enjoyed the feasting so much that they stretched it out.

The Pilgrims wanted some day they could celebrate. They took kindly to Thanksgiving.

True, some years they missed it, either because they were pretty busy or didn't feel very thankful, but other years they celebrated twice.

Once, just as the Massachusetts colonists were sitting down to a gorgeous spread, it was learned that a godless aborigine who had purveyed the vension and turkey for the occasion acquiring them, by sleight of bow and arrow, on the Lord's day.

For this the redskin was compelled to return the money paid to him and received thirty-nine lashes instead

"Having inflicted a just and righteous punishment on the sinful Indian," says the chronicle, "the company, with the exception of one member whose conscience was not satisfied, fell upon the meal and devoured it."

By 1684 the festival had become a regular annual event in Massachusetts. Before long it was observed similarly throughout all New England.

During the Revolution, the Continental congress recommended eight Thanksgiving days and General Washington two.

In September, 1789, Representative Boudino, asked congress to suggest to the president a day of thanks for the constitution

"In my opinion," said Representative Burke, objecting, "this would be a silly mimicking of European ways."

"And in mine," said Representative Tucker objecting too, "before giving thanks for the constitution, it would be well to try it for a while and see how it works."

Perhaps with turkey and cranberry sauce in mind, congress made the suggestion nevertheless and President Washington named Nov 26.

Various other personalities followed suit. Thomas Jefferson certainly was one of them, for it is of record that a certain Connecticut clergyman, in his Thanksgiving sermon, besought on behalf of the Monticello sage, as "our president," a goodly portion of divine grace

"'For well, O Lord, thou knowest" the worthy pastor reminded his Diety, "how much he needeth it"

However, a presidential proclamation was by no means the invariable rule in those days. More often than not the governors of the various states were left to issue proclamations of their own and this they generally did thought not always for the same day.

Finally, just after Gettysburg, Mrs Sarah J. Hale of Philadelphia, sent a copy of Washington's first proclamation to President Lincoln, urging him to issue one of his own. Lincoln did, naming Aug. 6.

Since then a presidential proclamation has been issued every year, and with one exception the last Thursday in November always has been the day illiterate.

In twelve states the total gain in illiteracy was 117,344 during the period between 1910 and 1920. These states, according to the Legion, are for the most part those which have received the greatest influx of immigrants during the last decade

"The American Legion is apalled at the discovery of America's low standing among the great powers of the world in the point of literacy," the Legion's Americanism director stated. "The correction of this deplorable state of affairs will be one of the foremost activities of the Americanism Commission."

Corrective Steps.

Among the first steps which the Legion will take are the holding of an American Education Week, December 3 to 9 inclusive, and the undertaking of a fight for total exclusion of immigration for a period of five years. The Legion's hope is to eliminate illiteracy by 1927, according to Powell.

Starting Sunday, December 3 with sermons by ministers of all denominations, the Legion's week will be featured with addresses before civic bodies and in all schools. Speakers will touch on patriotism, naturalization of immigrants, respect to the flag, better pay for the teachers, better equipment for the school and physical education. Thursday, December 7, has been designated as "Illiteracy Day."

In co-operation with the National Education Association, the Legion has adopted as its slogan "Adopt an Illiterate Today" recommending that its members and other patriotic citizens teach immigrants to read and write and to make them familiar with American history, American institutions and system of government.

The Legion's attention was first called to condition of illiteracy existing in this country by the results of the psychological tests of the Army draft, Powel said. These tests showed that out of 1,552,256 persons examined, 240 per cent could neither read nor write.

A WISE WORD FROM AFAR

The fundamental reason at the bottom of this country's attitude toward Europe is admirably set forth by so distant a neighbor as the Sydney Morning Herald. The Australian newspaper reviews the several complaints against the United States, covering a period of years, and demonstrates that in each case time brought a perspective which justified this country, even if the justification brought no comfort to anyone else.

Specifically referring to the war debts, the Morning Herald says: "No doubt if she could see her way to remit those debts the position of Europe would be immensely improved. But can we fairly expect her to do this without some assurance of a quid pro quo, not in the material sense, but in the shape of a genuine attempt to heal the antagonisms which still distract Europe and to bring an era of peace and stability?"

This is an enlightened understanding of American psychology which never has seemed to penetrate European heads. It states, from an unprejudiced source, exactly the value this country sets on the foreign obligations to her, and points out the moral investment those debts represent.

What particularly galls Americans is the thought that money owed to this country, and even interest owed on that money, is used for selfish purposes which eventually in every instance lead to hostilities, distress and impoverishment which, in turn, appeal to the United States for relief. The vast sums this country has subscribed for aid to war sufferers—often in wars with which America had no concern, as in Anatolia—never has been regarded as other than a moral investment; nor is there any thought of cent for cent return on the part of the givers.

But so long as Europe shows no disposition to economy, but adds monthly to its destruction of resources by wars which are neither in the cause of liberty nor of self-defense, just so long this country is bound to feel that the money owed to it must remain as a loan which, in time, must compel recognition, a thought-review of the disasters of destructive extravagance, and a new spirit of self-help as the first step to liquid ating obligations.

"COMMUNITY DRAMA"—What It Is

The very term "Community Drama" is self-explanatory—that is, drama in which the entire community is interested or in some way concerned. To that end, the dramatic institute now being held in town has as its main object the organization of a Community Drama Committee as a part of Clearfield Community Service which shall have the following general purposes:

1. To give all individuals and groups an opportunity to take part in public and contributing art activities in the town, not only actors, but musicians, costumers, painters, designers, decorators, seamstresses, electricians, typists, those who will write and suggest plays, writers of music and pageants, those good at business details, and any and all willing to give any sort of service to the production and expression of dramatic art.

2. To show in pageantry, pantomime and tableaux the history of the town, the county, and important events in national history.

3. To see that the patriotic events of the nation are properly observed and to bring the entire community into some form of co-operation if not more than observers.

4. To discover and develop leaders in all lines of dramatic activity, to encourage talent of all kinds and to assist efforts to express original and artistic ideas.

5. To develop wider reading by keeping the best plays before the community both by productions and systematic publicity, as reviews in the papers, talks on plays at stated periods, etc.

6. To interest all dramatic clubs in the town and secure their active aid and co-operation in productions for the community.

The departments of a Community Drama Committee are:

1. Story Telling, which conducts the story hours on the playgrounds during the summer and at other determined places and times, trains stor tellers, and puts on a Story Telling Festival some time during the year, usually at the end of the summer.

2. Festivals, which are given free to the public on special occasions, as May Day, Harvest time, Flag Day, etc.

3. Pageantry, for patriotic occasions, generally of an historic character, as on the Fourth of July when great events in the history of the town, county, state and nation may be depicted.

4. Play Production, with the object of giving regular performances free or at a nominal charge to the community, generally through the clubs already organized, except for one play a year of a notable type or special interest.

5. Training, designed to secure producers and club leaders in dramatics, read to assist all groups or organizations desiring them, as in staging, lighting, make-up, etc.

6. Play Writing, to interest those who write or have the desire in adaptations, dramatizations and writing plays, pageants, festivals, etc.

An immediate program for such a committee is to gather data and begin the preparation of an historical pageant of their town to be produced on the Fourth of July or at some other suitable time.

Usually three definite objects are enough for the first year, and the pageant, one community play and a playground festival will be found of general interest and effective for working up enthusiasm and co-operation in a more extended program for the future.

CONGRESSMAN MANN, REP. FLOOR LEADER, DIES AT THE CAPITAL

Washington, Nov. 30.—Representative James R. Mann of Illinois died at his home here tonight after a brief illness.

Mr. Mann, who had served for a quarter of a century as a member of the House, was stricken a week ago, first with a chill. Pneumonia developed, his condition became desperate, and the end came at 11:15 p. m.

The veteran legislator and former Republican floor leader, an ardent advocate of the shipping bill, sent word to House leaders early in the week, and again yesterday, that, while he was ill, he would go to the Capitol and help in the fight if needed.

In the words of friend and foe, Mr. Mann was the best informed man on the details of government that ever sat in the halls of congress.

The outstanding features of his long career as a member of the House of Representatives—extending over a period of more than a century—were absolute courage and independence and knowledge of legislation, pending and past. There was nothing too little to escape his eye; there was no man or measure he feared to attack.

Chas. Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Driggs and Mrs. MaWhinney passed through Orlando Saturday on their way to Pinellas Park. They report roads good excepting 40 miles enter-

TRAGEDY STALKS IN WAKE OF HOLIDAY; CRIME IS RAMPANT

Tragedy stalks in the wake of a joyful Thanksgiving it appears today from a resume of the many horrifying stories coming in over the wire, The Progress preferring to make only a mere mention of some of them.

At Passaic, N. J., the body of an unidentified young woman about nineteen years of age was found near a florist's hot house. Authorities believe the girl had been brought to the spot after having been the victim of an attack. Death was due to strangulation.

A. H. Cavin, a prominent resident of the Youngwood district of Pittsburg, was instantly killed when struck by the Uniontown express at 10:15 this morning.

Two men are dead and two are believed to be dying as a result of two separate pistol battles in Philadelphia, one in a house and one on the street.

Two other men are dead in the Woods Run district of Pittsburg after a stabbing affray on Thanksgiving evening in which five men were injured in addition to the two who were killed.

An unidentified man, probably about thirty years of age, was found in the swamps on the outskirts of the city of Wilmington, Delaware. The clothing was burned from the body.

Police are searching for the driver of a large touring car which crashed into an automobile driven by Dr. Goodell on Bigelow Boulevard early today then made his escape. Miss Gertrude Goodell, sister of the doctor, it is feared is injured internally. In all three were injured.

talented lot of performers, and for a wonderful purpose. Before we tell you what it is all about we are going to say that the admission is only fifty and twenty-five cents.

For this admission there will be three performances, a regular Keith circuit of Amusement and beauty bit of an altogether different character.

First there will be the one act play, "The Magic Path," a fantasy by fifty Third Ward school children. A beautiful spectacle.

Second, "The Happy Man" a one act play with fourteen in the cast. A humorous playlet that is well worth the admission.

Third, "His Japanese Wife" another one act play with cast of five High School and adults.

These three plays represent the three types of plays usually given in a community.

The proceeds go to the Milk Fund for the Nutrition Classes in the schools, a most worthy project, and we know you will be glad to help along.

Naturally the plays have been staged by the Community Service organization and that is a guarantee of its success. Buy your tickets early. The auditorium is going to be crowded.

Men Not Party

whose Senatorial record there seemed no blots. Nebraska, too, elected a Democratic governor. In New York, Al Smith was elected governor over Nathan L. Miller largely because "Al" projected his personality so strongly the voters could not resist him. The New York campaign was based on state and national issues.

Primary the Issue.

Senator Borah's Idaho campaign, though it did not involve his seat in the Senate, was another example of the way the voters this year followed men they believed in. Borah faced the organized opposition of his party leaders in an effort to get the Senatorial primary restored, in place of the convention system. So potent was his appeal to the voters that it became evident long before election day that no matter what the complexion of the next legislature, Idaho would have a primary law. And the Republican gubernatorial candidate was forced, in the end, to recant his opposition and to agree, tacitly, that he would sign the primary law.

Senator Lodge ran into the new independence of the voters in a way startling to him. Gov. Channing Cox was re-elected governor by 50,000 or more. Lodge barely got through. In the old days, Lodge nearly always led the ticket. But this year the voters made up their own tickets, and didn't just put a cross under the party emblem, accepting the selections of party leaders.

In Indiana, the alibi which Harry New and A. J. Beveridge can offer is that "somebody knifed me." Indiana is rapidly becoming an unpleasant state for a politician to inhabit. New was "knifed" by one set in the primaries and now Beveridge's friends charge New's supporters "knifed" Beveridge in the election. And both sets of knife wielders are getting ready to use their blades on "Jim" Watson when he comes up for re-election.

In Michigan, Townsend lost because of the Newberry case. His friends blame Henry Ford. In New Jersey, Frelinghuysen's dry record and his Newberry vote tell why he got beaten.

In Kansas, J. M. Davis, Democrat beat W. Y. Morgan, Republican, for governor because of Henry Allen, the present governor. Allen's industrial court was distasteful to many citizens, including organized labor.

Nearly everywhere the same thing was true---it was men and not great national issues which made up the voters' minds.

Uses of Gypsum.

Crude gypsum is used in Portland cement manufacture, for soil dressing, as an adulterant in flour, sugar and baking powder, and in the manufacture of crayons. Blocks of clear, white gypsum called alabaster are used by artists and sculptors. So it may be seen that ancient Egyptians were aware of the use of one of our most valuable modern materials when they plastered the commodious sides of old Cheops with gypsum.

MISS JORDAN HAPPY AT PROSPECT OF REMAINING IN U. S.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Miss Nancy Jordan, pretty English unmarried mother released from Ellis Island yesterday, today radiated happiness. "It is good to be free again," she said. Referring to her three year old son, Francis, whom she calls Frank she said "I was sure all the time that Frank and I would not be excluded from this country but was very much discouraged when compelled to wait a whole week for a decision."

Mrs. Mary Warren, who knew Miss Jordan in England four years ago, played with Frank today and said she was very glad to have Miss Jordan go home with her. The girl has repeatedly denied that Mrs. Warren's former husband is the father of the child.

Tired of Turkey? Try Oysters

If you're tired of having the remains of the Thanksgiving dinner hashed up and wish to fill in the week with something satisfying but light, why not try some of our oysters in one of the many ways they can be served?

You will find that they make good and that you will like them.

Big ones and little ones, too, of course.

KANE IS SATISFIED AT ACCOMPLISHMENT IN HIS CAMPAIGN

Clearfield Progress,
Clearfield, Pa.
Gentlemen:

Do you think your readers might be interested in figures showing what a thorough licking I received on November 7th? The vote for Congress of the 23rd district, reported from Harrisburg, is as follows:

	Swoope (Rep.-Soc.)	Snyder (Dem.)	Kane (Prd.)
Cameron	836	469	197
Centre	5,231	5,205	585
Clearfield	7,044	6,891	1,302
McKean	6,817	2,228	1,957
Totals	16,928	14,292	4,041

As far as getting elected is concerned, my campaign has been a flat failure. But as I spent no money except for advocacy of my economic theories through your columns and by my circular letter, I feel that neither my money nor time was wasted. Although I did not gain what I sought I have lost nothing.

Yours truly,
ELISHA K. KANE.

HAZEL—MOORE

Monday evening in the West Side M. E. parsonage the pastor, W. L. Armstrong, united in matrimony Mr. John W. Hazel and Miss Ella M. Moore, both of Clearfield. They will dwell among us, abiding on Hannah street. Their many friends wish them blessing on their voyage.

Easy to Effect Saving.

The prospect of a rise in the price of mustard should not cause much consternation; is there any item on which a saving could more easily be effected? The head of a famous firm that has built a fortune upon the manufacture of mustard once confessed that the money came to him not from the mustard we use but the mustard we waste. Not one of us but proves the truth of the statement every time we use the mustard pot and dab down on the side of our plate five times the quantity we are likely to eat.

Do You Get Up Nights On Account of Bladder?

This Symptom Tells You Something Is Wrong. A Dayton Man's Experience

Mr. John Lumpkins, 7 Carrie St., Dayton, Ohio, says in his own home paper, the Dayton Herald: "For two years I had to get up fifteen to twenty times each night. The scalding and pain was awful. After taking a few bottles of Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula), the pain came, until at least twenty-five pieces have passed. Some were as large as an egg. I am glad to have this way of telling my fellow sufferers about this great new remedy."

Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder like Epsom Salts on the bowels. It cleans them out and helps to relieve the bladder of abnormal deposits. The kidneys can be watched. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several ingredients doctors, which are useful for relief. Many doctors give the package. It is likely you have used anything similar. Try a few doses for backache, scalding, scanty or high-colored urine and frequent desire at night.

Be sure to get the Keller formula Lithiated everywhere, or write The Keller Laboratories at Stewart's Drug Store and drug counter, Dayton, Ohio.

CANARY ISLANDS NOT SO CANARY

Gibraltar, Dec. 1.—Canaries are scarcer than hens' teeth in the Canary Islands, according to the U. S. Marines of the cruiser Pittsburg, who arrived here recently after a visit to Las Palmas, the principal seaport of those islands.

The Marines expected to find canaries hopping all over the islands, waiting for salt to be sprinkled on their tails. Disillusionment came with their first visit ashore.

The islands got their name from Canis, the Latin name for dog, and the Marines say there are fewer canaries in the Canaries than there are snakes in Ireland.

Relatives and sweethearts of the sea soldiers who were promised a shipment of feathered songsters at an early date, will now have to wait until the Marines have an opportunity to visit a bird store in the United States.

Any Marine on the Pittsburg is ready to sell a canary cage for a song.

HUGHEY—SIPE

Saturday evening in the West Side M. E. parsonage, the pastor, W. L. Armstrong, using the ring ceremony, sealed the bonds of matrimony for Mr. Harry Hughey of Brackwayville, Pa., and Miss Pearl Elsie Sipe of Clearfield R. D. 2 in the presence of the bride's mother and sister. They intend to embark on their journey in the land of Goshen. Blessings attend thee, is the wish of friends.

Good Disinfectant.

Permanganate of potash is an excellent, cheap disinfectant. Dissolve one ounce in a quart of boiling water, and pour a little down every drain once a week, if you want to keep the house sweet.

CURWENSVILLE

Curwensville public schools will observe American Educational Week, which commences on December 3d and continues until December 9th. Following are the subjects for that time: Sunday, December 3d, "For God and Country;" 4th, "American Citizenship Day;" 5th, "Patriotism Day," 6th, "School and Teachers Day," 7th, "Illiteracy Day" and evening meeting in Patton building; 8th, "Equality of Opportunity;" 9, "Physical Education Day." These subjects will occupy a large part of the class room work each day during the week. Patrons are asked to visit the schools during the week and the teachers are asked to exemplify these various subjects by suitable recitations and drills. The Curwensville schools have one great central purpose in observing American Educational Week this year and that purpose is PERFECTION.

WINBURNE

The annual meeting of the Winburne Free Library Association took place last Thursday evening, Nov. 23, 1922, at the Presbyterian church. A fair-sized representation was present. Mrs. R. H. Sommerville was elected trustee to succeed herself. D. M. Bloom was elected to succeed Prof Ira Hoffman, who has removed from the community.

It is contemplated to move the library to a new location on account of the crowded condition at the Post Office. A resolution of thanks was rendered Postmaster Max. A. Crain and his assistant, Miss Lydia Fulmar for their services in connection with the library the past year. The committee on a new location consists of Mrs. Sommerville, Mrs. P. J. Baer and Miss Sarah Huling. It is thought of the committee to secure a room in the Miller-Henritzy building.

The Treasurer, Mr. R. H. George, reported $237.62 as the total receipts for the past year. There is a considerable balance in the hands of the Treasurer.

Total number of books in the library 130; additions are made as the funds and book shelves allow; total number of registered borrowers, 326. Information coming from Harrisburg states this is the only public library in Clearfield county excepting DuBois. The trustees had a meeting immediately following the Association's and elected officers for the coming year:

President, Rev. Benj. Thomas.
Secretary, Mrs. J. G. Miller.
Treasurer, Mr. R. H. George.

A news item states that Dublin, New Hampshire has recently celebrated the 100th anniversary of its public library. It holds the honor to be the first public library established in the United States. It was founded by Rev. Levi Leonard, pastor of a church there.

Last Friday, Nov. 24, a large gathering of friends and relatives assembled at the Presby. church where the funeral services of Mrs James Jamison was held. She was 79 years of age and leaves a husband and six living children. The services were conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Benj. Thomas. He emphasized two thoughts "All must die.' and "How to die happy."

Misses Sarah Huling and Margaret 'Judge' have gone to Saratoga Springs, N. Y., to spend a week with 'Miss Sarah Mudge, a sophomore at Skidmore College.

Miss Mary A. Thomas, a Freshman at Marysville College (Tennessee) was invited to take part in a recital given recently at the college under the auspices of the Musical Department.

BIGLER

Miss Nora Kramer and niece Evyen Wieser, are visiting relatives at Millheim.

Mrs. Harry Miller of Yarnell, Center county, visited relatives here last week.

C. A. Walker and nieces Miss Maud and Mary Miller and Miss Myrtle Miller of Altoona are in Philadelphia, where they took little Mary Miller for a serious operation of the throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz Wieser, of Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Wiese and baby of Curwensville and Mrs Kramer of Millheim visited at the home of D. D. Wieser over Sunday.

Postmaster John L. Pierce is getting along nicely after being on the sick list for the past two weeks.

COOPER TWP. HIGH HOLDS BURGERS TO FOURTEEN POINTS

The doughty football warriors from the High School on the Hill down in Coopey township, held the strong Philipsburg High eleven to a 14-0 score in a hotly contested game at Philipsburg yesterday afternoon.

Starting right in with a whirlwind attack, the Burgers worked the ball to within two feet of the coveted Cooper chalkline, where they were met by a stone wall defense and lost the ball on downs. Following this the Burgers worked the aerial game and scored on a forward pass to Russell after which the point was made from play making the score at the end of the first quarter 7-0.

The second and third quarters were devoid of tallies but were marked with some sensational football. Unable to gain through the adamant defense built up by Coach Lebo, the Burgers again took to the aerial game which came near being their downfall. Intercepting one of Philipsburg's passes, Maurey, a young Cooperite with less than three months' experience chasing the pigskin, started down the field with plenty of trailers. The trailers caught the lad only after he had put six and one-half chalklines to the rear of his thrumming feet. It brought the crowd up standing and was easily the feature of the game.

As the shades of night were fast falling, Philipsburg again started the aerial game and with about three minutes to play Gette, the Burgers' fast running back, gathered in a pass and crossed the Cooper line.

Considering that Coach Lebo has a squad consisting mostly of men who have never played the game before, Cooper township went down to defeat with their colors flying and, given another year's experience, will undoubtedly be a team to reckon with.

Opening of TOYLAND

On Friday Morning, Rain or Shine;
When the Court House Clock Tolls Out Its Nine

LITTLE boy, little girl, come take hold of my hand,
And we'll wander off to a wonderful land,
Where blocks to build castles are shiny and red,
And for each darling doll there's a dear little bed.
Oh, Toyland, my dears, is a wonderful place
Lighted up all around with old Santa's dear face!

Trains that go whizzing around glistening tracks
Are some of the things Santa brought in his packs,
There's a woolly white lamb that goes "Bah, bah,"
And a dolly that walks and can say "Mama,"
Oh, Toyland, my dears, is a wonderful place
Lighted up all around with old Santa's dear face!

Yes indeed Santa Claus from his home in the north,
Behind Donner and Blitzen again sallied forth,
And he's right here in Toyland to talk with each child,
And to give you a present—way high are they piled.
Oh, Toyland, my dears, is a wonderful place
Lighted up all around with old Santa's dear face!

Mother will bring you to Toyland, I know,
If to school and to bed right on time you will go;
And when you're asleep and sail out on a dream
You'll think of the toys that are here to be seen.
Oh, Toyland, my dears, is a wonderful place
Lighted up all around with old Santa's dear face!

*Here's a big Drum
